FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Highland High School trip to Costa Rica set for April 3-12, 2010

MEDINA, OHIO (10/7/09) – Highland High School students and their parents are invited on an educational experience to Costa Rica from April 3-12, 2010. Accompanied by Highland science teachers Jodi Rain and Kristine Nerlich, parents and students must pay for their own trip. No expenses are covered by the District. Cost for students is $1,936 and cost for adults is $2,271. Payment plans are available.

Students and their parents will experience a variety of amazing geographical sites, such as the Rainforest in the Clouds, and will have the opportunity to explore many biomes and ecosystems that are not available to them in the United States. Additionally, travelers will experience:

- Canopy hike in the rainforest with a zipline adventure
- Kayaking in Arenal Lake
- A day in the natural hot springs generated from a volcano
- A day on the coast

Deadline for registration is October 30, 2009. Passports and immunizations are required. If interested in registering or would like specific information on costs, please contact Mrs. Rain at jrain@highlandschools.org.
