Highland senior, Joshua Ulm, offered Presidential Scholarship

MEDINA, OHIO (12/9/09) – Congratulations to Highland High School senior Joshua Ulm on being offered the 2010 Presidential Scholarship at Concordia University in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Joshua is one of only two students to be offered the annual full-tuition scholarship at the university, an award valued at over $81,000.

Presidential Scholarship recipients must have strong academic records of accomplishment and proven leadership in both their school and their community, as well as possess servant leadership qualities in social or religious organizations.

Joshua is a member of the Highland Marching Band, Chess Club and Science Olympiad. He is the son of Gregory and Kristin Ulm of Medina, Ohio.

Concordia University is a private, liberal arts university located in Ann Arbor, Michigan.
