Highland Board of Education Appoints New Member

MEDINA, OHIO (3/2/10) – The Highland Board of Education has appointed John A. CizMadia of Hinckley as its newest Board member. Mr. CizMadia was appointed during a special meeting held February 28 and will officially be sworn in at the March 15 regular Board meeting set for 7 p.m. at Highland High School.

Mr. CizMadia was among 11 candidates to apply for the open Board seat, vacated by Dr. Nancy Wingenbach who resigned February 1, 2010. Dr. Wingenbach, who joined the Board in 1984, has relocated outside of the Highland District and was unable to fulfill her four-year term.

Dr. Norman Christopher, Board President, said, "John, a life-long resident of Hinckley, brings with him a passion for the school district and a very clear understanding of the vital role that the schools play in our community."

A Highland graduate and owner of North American Outdoors, Mr. CizMadia and his wife, Susan, have four children, one attending Highland Middle School and two at Hinckley Elementary School. His term will expire on December 31, 2011.
